PRESS RELEASE –

38th Annual March in Montana Sale – A Highlight of Western Art Week

Great Falls, MT – The 38th annual March in Montana sale and show is set to be a centerpiece of Western Art Week in Great Falls, Montana. Join us March 20-22, 2025 at the Great Falls Elks Club for an unforgettable celebration of Western and Native American art, artifacts, and culture. Be sure to book your accommodations early to experience all the excitement! This year's event features a spectacular lineup of works by legendary artist Charles M. Russell, including two exceptional watercolors of Native American portraits, one depicting the iconic Chief Joseph. Also showcased are a beautifully detailed watercolor of whitetail deer and an early depiction of a rodeo in the Judith Basin. These masterpieces are sure to draw significant attention from collectors and enthusiasts alike.

Alaskan Art Extravaganza

Once again, March in Montana presents an extraordinary collection of Alaskan art. Highlights include one of the finest Sydney Laurence paintings to come to market, alongside works by Theodore Richardson and Eustace Ziegler—a lineup guaranteed to inspire competitive bidding.

Montana Masterpieces

Every year, we proudly feature outstanding works by Montana artists, and this year is no exception. A remarkable piece by Great Falls' own Olaf C. Seltzer leads the charge, with additional works by favorites such as Ace Powell, James Ralston, William Standing, and many others.

Bronze Bonanza

Collectors of fine bronzes will be thrilled with over 100 exceptional offerings this year. Highlights include stunning works by Montana's own Bob Scriver and Earl Heikka, as well as notable pieces by Grant Speed, Dave McGary, and Lorenzo Ghiglieri. The variety ensures something for every taste.

Native American Artifacts and Collectibles

Rounding out the sale are over 60 exquisite Navajo weavings, a selection of collectible firearms—including a beautifully engraved Henry rifle—and an impressive array of Native American artifacts from two newly acquired collections.

Don't Miss the Best Dealers and Galleries

When you visit the March in Montana show and sale, you'll find an unparalleled gathering of the finest dealers and galleries in the business, all in one convenient location at the Great Falls Elks Club.

Make plans now to attend the 38th annual March in Montana sale and show. This is your chance to immerse yourself in the rich heritage of Western and Native American art, meet fellow collectors, and bid on truly extraordinary pieces. We'll see you in Great Falls!
