Great Falls, MT — The 39th Annual March in Montana Auction and Dealer Show returns to the Great Falls Elks Club this March, bringing together collectors, dealers, and art lovers for one of the premier Western art and collectibles events in the country. Great Bronzes: Highlights include an original cast of Frederic Remington's iconic *Bronco Buster and an original cast of Charles M. Russell's rare bronze *Range Father. Additional sculpture offerings feature works by Bob Scriver, Earl E. Complementing this section is a well-documented note signed by George Washington, Founder of our Nation, adding a remarkable piece of early American history.

Wildlife and Sporting Art: A special section features numerous paintings by the great Bob Kuhn from the noted Yturria Collection, along with several works by John Seerey-Lester from his celebrated Theodore Roosevelt African Hunt series. Additional artists include Luke Frazier, Daniel Smith, Ken Carlson, and more.

Native American Artifacts and Collectibles: Highlights include a painted elk hide by Chief Washakie's son, Cadzi Cody (Shoshone), one of the most recognized Native artists of the early 20th century. The sale also features a highly collectible Crow saddle, several bows and quivers, and a newly acquired, extremely rare Lakota "Medicine Wrapper."

This year's auction continues the tradition of offering an outstanding group of "Montana-sized" Navajo weavings and blankets. The March in Montana sale has built a reputation as the best single venue in the region to view and acquire exceptional textile art.

Montana's Best Artists: Works by Charles M. Russell, Bob Scriver, E.S. Paxson, Olaf C. Seltzer, and Earl E. Heikka headline a strong group of historic Montana artists.
